                 EXT. Local Movie Theater - night

A door is pushed open and people begin to stream through, among them are an OLD PERSON and a YOUNG PERSON.  They move off the side of the crowd.  The old person reaches in his pocket to pull out a pack of cigarettes and a zippo lighter.

                        YOUNG PERSON
                 That was a great movie...

The young person looks up at the old person next to him.  The old person takes out a cigarette from the pack.

                        YOUNG PERSON (CONT'D)
                 but I don't understand one thing.

The old person lights up and begins to smoke.  The pulsating glow from the cigarette vaguely illuminating the two of them.

                        OLD PERSON
                      (Quietly)
                 Oh, what's that?

                        YOUNG PERSON
                 Well, I just don't understand how anyone can be 'seduced by the dark side'.

They sit in silence for a moment.  The old person staring off into space.

                        OLD PERSON
                 What computer do you use at home?

                        YOUNG PERSON
                      (confused)
                 A mac.

                        OLD PERSON
                 And what computer does your father use at work?

The young person leans against looking off into the distance with a curious look on his face.

                        YOUNG PERSON
                      (slowly)
                 Seduced by the dark side!

                        OLD PERSON
                 Yes my friend, seduced by the dark side.
```

They look at each other for a moment, feeling the joy that only understanding brings.

                    YOUNG PERSON
          You ready to leave?

                    OLD PERSON
          Yeah, let's go.

The old person takes the cigarette out of his mouth and drops it on the ground.

                                        FADE OUT
